Insurance Solutions For The Childminding Sector

Arachas - Childminders Insurance Experts

We understand that it has been a difficult time for everyone and right now you have plenty to figure out without worrying about your insurance cover – that's why we're here to help you. We work with A-Rated insurance providers to develop Insurance solutions that answer the challenges faced by the Childcare Sector in securing reliable insurance cover for your service.

When you are looking after children, it's vital to know that you have the right insurance protection in place in case anything unexpected happens. This will make sure that the children in your care are covered. We work closely with Childminding Ireland (CMI) to create tailored insurance solutions for their members and give the reassurance that can only be found in a robust package of insurance cover that is built to protect your business and your livelihood. Childminding insurance is available to CMI members at a discounted rate.

Arachas partners with Childminding Ireland to offer superb customer support

Childminding Ireland is the National Childminding Body supporting childminders in setting up their business.

They lobby the government on behalf of childminding and communicate relevant childminding updates to all childminders who are in contact with them. They also support parents looking for and using childminding services.

Insurance is a requirement for membership because it provides protection for childminders and reassurance for parents.

You can contact the CMI team on 01 287 8466 or email support@childminding.ie.
